AUTHOR OF NOVEL: ORSON SCOTT CARD

The youngest commander to defeat the buggers and save humanity.

!!! The youngest commander defeated the buggers and saved the Earth!!!

Ender, the commander of Dragon Army, led his army and defeated the buggers during his final exam. This is the second time human defeated buggers after Mazer Rackham. But something happened after the exam between Ender and Command School.

He has been M.I.A for 2 months because of killing Bonzo by accident. He has returned back to Earth for healing himself. Everyone was afraid that he was not coming back to help the humans. Fortunately, after talking to his sister, Valentine, he decided to come back to continue his jobs.

But according to our information, Ender is mad about the way Command School tricked him. He did not expect he will kill all the buggers at the final exam and become the hero of the humans. He crumbled again (the first time was when he accidentally killed Bonzo) and the relationship between him and Command School got worse than before. Though Command School is still going to promote him to chief commander, and because of his well-done-work, they might send him to the human's colony in outer space.

We have visited commander Ender and commander Graff to ask for their ideas about the information. Commander Graff said that promoting Ender is the truth, but won't say anything else. Also, he told us Ender and Command School are standing on the same side. We are finding Ender to ask, but we gave up until someone told us Ender is now looked in his room. Thus we can guess Command School and Commander Graff are trying to conceal something.

Now we can't get too much information from the inside. Command School said they are going to hold a press conference with Ender and tell the public what they are going to do after they defeated the buggers.

To get more, stay tuned for Battle News Monthly.

The never-won-army defeated the invincible Salamander Army

Do you know there is a new army called Dragon Army, and they defeated every army, including the Salamander Army?

The young hot-shot commander Ender led the army and brought victory and broke the record.

Salamander Army was the first army Ender stayed in. But Bonzo, Salamander Army's commander, was jealous of him, so Ender didn't get good training. There, he met Petra, who was the commander of Phoenix Army and became one of his team members. She taught him battle skills and made him become the best warrior in school. His talent and his battle skills gave him a chance to lead his own army. He won a lot of victories since he had his own army. Now in Battle School, the "Top 1 Army to Join" is Dragon Army. A student here said "Dragon Army is the BEST!! They defeated every army here, also Salamander Army. I think it must be awesome to be in this army!!" It seems like Dragon Army is popular and prestigious in the school.

Some students also told us Salamander Army's team members are mad about this. They are angry about their glory record has been defeated by a little boy. They want revenge so they put their anger on other students in battle school. They told the students in those schools: don't get out of your room alone, or you might get hurt.

Graff and the other commanders are considering to train Ender into a real commander, and train him and his team to use weapons for their fight with the buggers. However, they didn't say anything about it.

News from Battle Monthly News will be continually updated, stay tuned.

Obituary

Bonito de Madrid

Bonito de Madrid was born in Toledo, Spain. As the only kid at home, his parents gave a lot of love to him. He showed his talent since he was a kid, and Command School also found out that he is the kid they are looking for. So they came to test him for battle school. His intelligence gave him the power to lead his own army, and he won many battles until Dragon Army defeated them. The funeral will be held at his home town on April 4th and it will be open to the public. He leaves behind his mother and father who love him dearly. Select a section break

Stilson

Stilson was one of Miss Pumphrey's elementary school students. He was an only child, so his parents expected him to go to battle school and be a good commander. He was a smart kid, also had good leadership skills, and was expected to become the next person to go to Battle school. Unfortunately, he passed away when he was 11. His funeral will be held 2 days later at his parent's home, but it's not open to the public.
